*OVERVIEW

On Thursday, 02-27-92, at 0800 hours, Investigators Anderson, Bosket, Bice and Shaw responded to [redacted] Gardenhill Dr., La Mirada, to investigate the shooting of Suspect Angichiodo by Norwalk Deputy Sheriffs. Investigators Bice and Shaw were assigned to assist at the crime scene at the direction of Investigators Anderson and Bosket, who are the primary investigators.

Deputy Benson, Norwalk Patrol Unit 46K1, advised Investigators that Deputies Orosco and Joyner responded to a "family disturbance/ mental patient" call at [redacted], (Location #1). Upon contacting the informant and [redacted] Suspect Angichiodo (who is a mentally disturbed person), an altercation ensued between the deputies and suspect. The suspect, armed with a hunting knife, ran from the location on foot, eastbound on Fairvilla Dr. After requesting further assistance, deputies followed the suspect in their radio cars as he ran through the neighborhood.

The suspect ran eastbound on Fairvilla Dr., to Gandara Ave., turning south to Greenworth Dr., where he ran west for approximately 1/2 block before turning around and running back, eastbound, through the intersection of Gandara and Greenworth. At this point, he, again, turned and retraced his steps back to Fairvilla Dr., and west toward location #1. He stopped on Fairvilla, just west of Gandara, paused momentarily, then turned and ran back to Gandara. He turned and ran north to Gardenhill Dr., then turned and ran east to Springford Dr. At Springford Dr., the suspect again turned and ran westbound on Gardenhill Dr., until he reached [redacted] Greenworth (location #2) .

At this location the suspect ran into the rear yard where he entered the residence by breaking out the sliding glass patio door. Deputies (now on foot) followed the suspect into the rear yard and an altercation occurred at which time shots were fired by the deputies, wounding the suspect in the arm .

The suspect ran from the deputies to Gardenhill, then he ran west to Gandara Ave., where he dropped the knife he had been carrying. He turned and ran north to Ragan Dr. The suspect was finally caught and arrested by deputies after running west on Ragan Dr., to a spot in front of [redacted], (Location #3). Throughout this pursuit, the suspect charged at deputies and their radio cars, threatening to cut them with the knife he was holding.

The suspect was treated by L. A. County paramedics at Location #3. The suspect was placed under arrest and transported to La Mirada Community Hospital, escorted by Deputy Barron, for further medical treatment. (See Complaint report and Supplementary report written by Deputy R.B. Orosco #[redacted], and additional Supplementary reports written by Deputies D. Clark #[redacted], David Benson #[redacted] and M. Barron #[redacted]. These reports will be made a permanent part of this file.

Deputies Coleman and Shannon, Staff Artist Detail, responded and will prepare "to scale" drawings of all concerned areas. The drawings will be made a permanent part of this file.

Deputies R. Salazar and M. Ascolese, Sheriff's Latent Prints, arrived at the scene and, at the direction of Investigators, photographed all locations. These photos will be made a permanent part of this file.

SCENE**

Location #1 is [redacted] Fairvilla Dr., La Mirada. Fairvilla Drive is an east-west street bordered on the west by Biola Avenue, and Gandara Avenue, on the east. The house at this location faces north and is a one-story, grey stucco, single family dwelling with white wood trim and an attached two-car garage.

The location's front door faces the east and opens into an entry hallway approximately 10' long by 4' wide. The living room is to the left of the entry hall. A 4' wide hallway, right of the entry hall, runs north. The hallway allows entry into the bedrooms and bathroom, which are on the northwest and northeast corners of the residence. The kitchen, which is situated east of the living room, has doors located at the northwest corner, one onto the entry hall and one onto the living room.

Along the north wall was a sofa chair, and a reclining chair. Along the east and west walls were sofas with a coffee table in front of the sofa on the west wall. Along the south wall was a television and stereo system.

Location #2, Gardenhill Drive, is an east-west street bordered on the west by Gandara Avenue and on the east by Springford Drive. The primary area of concern is located at [redacted] Gardenhill Drive, a one-story, [redacted] single family residence, facing south, with an attached two-car garage on the southwest corner of the house.

A 1981 Blue, Toyota pickup truck, Lic. #[redacted], was parked on the driveway apron on the west side of the driveway in front of the garage. A 1991 Green/White Ford pickup truck, Lic. #[redacted], was parked on the east side of the driveway in front of the garage. Both vehicles are registered to residents of the location.

To the west of the driveway, a sidewalk, bordered with grass, leads to a wooden gate at the rear of the garage. This gate opens into the rear yard of the location. A stack of firewood is located halfway between the rear gate and the front of the garage.

Investigators observed (evidence item #15) a piece of firewood, to have what appeared to be the entry hole of a bullet. On the garage wall, north of the firewood, Investigators observed several spots of what appeared to be blood. Investigators observed two (2) bullet holes in the stucco siding of the house, north of the firewood, approximately 4' above ground level. One of the holes was completely through the stucco, and plaster board siding. Attempts to recover the bullet met with negative results. The other hole did not penetrate through the wall.

The sidewalk merged with a covered patio, to the north of the rear, side gate. A sliding glass patio door faces this patio from the west side of the house. The south side of the patio was bordered by the back wall of the kitchen, which had a door opening onto the patio. The sliding portion of the glass patio door, which entered into the den, had been smashed. Bloody pieces of glass were laying on the patio and on the carpet inside the den. Small spots of blood were visible on the den couch, the side of a T.V. cabinet and on the floor near a wide doorway on the southeast corner of the den, leading into the dining room. A second door on this southwest corner of the dining room, led to the kitchen.

Additional blood spots were seen on the floor, on the carpet and walls, leading into the dining room, on the carpet and walls, and on a china cabinet along the west wall of the dining room. There is a door, south of the china cabinet, leading to the kitchen. Blood spots trailed from the dining room, through the kitchen and were visible on the kitchen door and floor, leading to the outside covered patio.

Further investigation revealed this blood trail continued out of the kitchen, onto the patio, south on the above-mentioned sidewalk, west, across the front yard of the residence, to the west of Location #2. These blood spots became more frequent as the trail continued west on the north sidewalk along Gardenhill Dr., onto Gandara Dr., then north on Gandara, crossing from the east side to the west side and onto Ragan Dr., where the blood trail turned west, ending in a pool of blood south of Deputy Benson's radio car, which was parked facing a southwest direction in front of [redacted] [redacted] The radio car also had large amounts of blood smears on the left side doors, the rear fender, trunk and left, rear hubcap.

Sheriff's Crime Lab Serologist, P. l Coleman, responded to the location and at the direction of Investigators took samples of the blood. He will prepare a report, a copy of which will be obtained and made a permanent part of this file.

Investigators observed (2) two bullet holes in the front of the garage at the residence at [redacted] One was observed approximately 4' up from the ground and 2' east from the west edge of the door frame. The expended bullet continued to travel through the garage, striking a file cabinet, a plastic shoe box, a one-pint can of "Behr" clear-wood finish, a one-pint can of "Miniwax" clear gloss wood finish, and a gallon can of "Nelsonite" Wood preservative. The expended bullet then entered the rear wall of the garage. As no exit hole was found in the interior wall of the kitchen, the expended bullet was not recovered.

The second expended bullet entered the stucco area above the garage door, possibly remaining between the exterior and interior walls of the garage. The above damage (two bullet holes) is believed to have been the end result of bullets fired by deputies from location #2 ([redacted] Gardenhill Dr., La Mirada).

At 1430 hours, Investigators contacted [redacted] and [redacted], the residents at [redacted], at their respective places of employment. Mr. and Mrs. [redacted]s residence is directly across the street from the [redacted]' (location #2). They were at work when the incident occurred.

Upon their return to their home, they checked the interior, along with investigators and ascertained that no one had been hurt by the bullets.

At [redacted], Investigators observed a 1972 Eldorado Motorhome, Lic. #[redacted], parked on the driveway apron of the residence at [redacted] The vehicle appeared to have been struck by a bullet during the time shots were fired by deputies. The residents at this location were not at home.

Investigator Shaw observed a bullet hole in the right, rear side panel of the above motorhome. The hole was approximately 9" from the rear of the vehicle, and 5'2" from the ground. The interior of the vehicle could be seen through the windows. A check of the interior was conducted and no major damage was noted. No one had been inside the vehicle at the time of the shooting. Efforts to locate the expended bullet were met with negative results.

A note requesting the vehicle to owner contact Investigator Shaw was left at the residence.

Investigator Shaw contacted [redacted] at [redacted], who stated his 1985 Chevrolet MotorHome was struck by a bullet during the time that shots were fired by the deputies. Investigator Shaw observed a bullet hole in the lower, left side of the vehicle's windshield. A check of the interior was conducted and the path of the bullet was traced from its entry hole through the vehicle dash and instrument panel. Several areas beneath the dash showed bullet damage to the vehicle's electrical wiring. No expended bullet was recovered. No one was in the vehicle when it was struck by the bullet.

Location #3 is the street in front of [redacted] Ragan Dr. is an east-west street. A Sheriff's radio car, #58714, Lic. # E097833, was parked at an angle in the middle of the street, facing southwest. Large amounts of blood were observed smeared on both doors on the driver's side, on the vehicle's hood, on left side of the trunk, and on the left, rear hub cap.

Evidence item #14, numerous blood-stained articles of clothing, including a pair of white pants, a blue/grey striped long sleeve shirt, and a pair of white tennis shoes, belonging to Suspect Angichiodo, were removed from the vehicle's trunk and given to P. Coleman, Sheriff's Crime Lab, for transported to the lab for examination.

See list of Evidence Held for locations of found evidence.

WITNESS INTERVIEWS**

CONDUCTED ON THURSDAY 02-27-92
1045 HOURS

Investigators Bice and Shaw were contacted by [redacted] in front of her residence at [redacted], in the city of [redacted]. Mrs. [redacted] said the suspect and his elderly parents moved into the house next door (west of her residence) about one year ago. She wanted to know if the police activity in her neighborhood this morning had anything to do with [redacted] of her elderly neighbors.

She referenced an incident which occurred approximately one month ago, wherein police had to physically restrain [redacted] of the elderly couple in order to transport him to a mental hospital.

Mrs. [redacted] said her husband heard the suspect arguing with his [redacted] this morning at about 0630 hours. Her husband didn't think much of it at the time because lately the suspect yells at his parents when he's home. Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] have been concerned the elderly couple may be victims of elder abuse.

After her husband and daughter left for work this morning at 0730 hours, Mrs. [redacted] saw the police next door as she looked out her kitchen window. She could hear the officers telling the suspect, "We don't want to hurt you, just put it down. Put the knife down". The officers repeated the order several times. Once she heard the suspect's [redacted] say, "Sammy, just put it down".

Eventually, she saw the suspect run eastbound in the street from his [redacted]' house. Two deputies got into one radio car and followed him.

When the Angichiodos first moved in, the suspect was friendly and always spoke to Mrs. [redacted]. She has seen a definite personality change in him since last December (1991); he has been sullen, surly, rarely speaks to her and he has had many loud, verbally threatening and abusive arguments with [redacted] since that time.

1200 HOURS

Investigator Bice interviewed [redacted] at his residence, [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] was looking out his front bedroom window, which faces south onto Gardenhill Dr., when he "spotted a young man across the street, acting strangely". The man who was walking/trotting eastbound, was being followed by two police cars. The man (suspect Angichiodo) turned and looked at the police in their police cars and pointed his finger at them in a threatening manner. Three more police cars arrived and the officers exited their vehicles with their weapons drawn; shortly thereafter he heard gun shots and he immediately took cover.

From his position on the floor he heard officers running on foot on Gardenhill Dr., he believed they were chasing the suspect. Mr. [redacted] did not see the suspect again.

1220 HOURS

Investigator Bice interviewed witnesses: [redacted]; [redacted]; and [redacted]. The [redacted] live at [redacted] Gardenhill Dr., La Mirada (location #2). The Harringtons said they were extremely frightened when the suspect crashed through their sliding glass door holding a knife. They said, although he did not threaten them with the knife, they were fearful for their lives as they did not know the suspect nor did they know what precipitated his actions. Their taped statements will be transcribed and made a permanent part of this file.

1320 HOURS

Investigator Shaw conducted an interview with L.A. Sheriff's Department Intern, Lydia Isebel Ocasio, #[redacted]. The interview was conducted at location #2, [redacted] Gardenhill Dr., La Mirada. Intern Ocasio has been employed as an intern since 01-24-92. She started the shift on 02-27-92, at 0600 hours, and was assigned to ride with Deputy Robert Norris in Unit #43T1.

They responded to assist Norwalk deputies at [redacted], La Mirada. The handling unit directed them to Gardenhill Dr. They approached eastbound on Gardenhill Drive where she saw two other radio cars approaching from the east, and she also observed a male walking westbound on the sidewalk at [redacted] Gardenhill Dr. The male turned and walked out of her sight into the rear yard at that location. The male reappeared momentarily and then walked out of her sight, again, into the rear yard. The male appeared confused. She recalled hearing a sound like glass breaking. At this point she saw deputies run after the male to the rear yard. A man and woman ran out of the front door into the front yard. She heard 6 or 7 shots as the male reappeared from the back yard and ran westbound. Several deputies were chasing him. The man, with the deputies in pursuit, ran to the corner (Gardenhill and Gandara Drive) and out of her sight.

Investigators Bice and Shaw interviewed [redacted] (DOB: [redacted]) and his [redacted] (DOB: [redacted]) in their home, ([redacted]). Mr. and Mrs. [redacted], Samuel Angichiodo, Jr. [redacted] (DOB: [redacted]), the [redacted] of the Angichiodos', attended this interview for purposes of clarifying information exchanged between Investigators and [redacted], as they are elderly and easily confused.

Mr. [redacted] provided the following information in regards to [redacted]. Samuel, Jr. is the youngest of four children and has always lived at home and has never worked due to his mental disabilities. He has been diagnosed as having a "manic depressive psychosis" since age sixteen. Dr. Copelan of the University of California at Irvine made this diagnosis. Samuel, Jr. has been institutionalized at UCI (in a lock-down facility) approximately four times since 1980. He has cycling periods wherein he is stabilized on medications for approximately one year, afterwhich his mental condition begins to deteriorate to the point where he has to be hospitalized and re-evaluated for antidepressant medications.

The Angichiodos have lived at [redacted], for the past year; prior to that they lived [redacted]. From 1978 to 1980 they lived [redacted].

In January, 1992, the suspect, Samuel, Jr. was in a car accident near the Long Beach Marina. The family Cadillac, which he was driving, was totally destroyed. He walked home to La Mirada, from Long Beach, after the accident, approximately 25 miles. He arrived home tired and complaining of abdominal pain. Paramedics were called to check on his condition. He refused medical attention at this time.

During the course of the evening, [redacted] tried to call [redacted]. Each time, the suspect answered the phone and refused to allow [redacted] to talk to them. He had become extremely "hyper" and verbally abusive to his parents, and, as is his habit when his mental condition declines, he began to tidy things up around the house. Then systematically tore his work apart by throwing things around which created a mess. At one point, Mr. [redacted] was able to make a very short call to [redacted], [redacted], who lives close by. He told her to call for help. [redacted] immediately called Norwalk Sheriff's Station. She advised them of the possible hostage situation and of the mental incapacity of [redacted].

Police responded and forcibly restrained the suspect. He was transported to Harbor General Hospital for 5150 of the Health and Safety code (mental evaluation). After 2 days he was transferred to UCI where he stayed for 3 weeks before being transferred to Anaheim Therapeutic Center, 501 So. Beach in Anaheim.

The suspect was apparently not happy at the therapy center and ran away during the morning hours of 2-26-92. He walked to an Italian Restaurant in the Stanton area and asked the restaurant owner/manager to call his [redacted] [redacted] Mr. [redacted] told the restaurant owner to call the local police because [redacted] was a run-away from the mental health therapy center. The restaurant owner complied and Stanton Police responded to return the suspect to the hospital.

After his return to the hospital, the suspect ran away again. This time he walked all the way home to his parents' house in La Mirada. He arrived at about 4:30 PM, ate a big dinner and went to bed about 9:00 PM. His condition during this time was "hyper". He awoke at 2:00 A.M. on Thursday. He woke [redacted] and requested the keys to the new car. Mr. [redacted] refused to allow him to drive the new car. The suspect became very agitated and started cursing and yelling at [redacted]. The verbal tirade went on for several hours.

At about 5:00 or 6:00 A.M., he started complaining of the heat in the house. He went around and opened all the windows. The window in his room on the northwest corner of the house wouldn't open freely so he pushed it with the palm of his hand and the window pane broke. He told [redacted] he had broken the window. Then he proceeded to clean up the broken glass.

The suspect was obviously "hyper" and agitated and [redacted] was becoming fearful. At approximately 7:00 A.M. Mr. [redacted] called [redacted], while the suspect was in the bathroom. The suspect interceded the phone call and hung up on [redacted]. She immediately called police. The suspect had been in the bathroom shaving just before police arrived.

The altercation between the suspect and the police ensued when deputies told him they were going to return him to the hospital. He pulled a knife from his waistband and threatened to stab the officers if they tried to take him back to the hospital. The suspect was holding the knife in a threatening manner, with his arm raised and the blade projecting down from the palm of his hand.

At this point, the suspect was standing in the living room in front of the television. The police officers, (Deputies Orosco and Joyner), who were standing in the entry hall of the residence with their guns drawn, were blocking the suspect's egress from the living room to the front door.

The officers told the suspect to put the knife down, with negative results. The suspect told the officers to put their guns down instead. The suspect then changed the position of the knife by holding the blade between his fingers as if he intended to throw it at the officers. Then he changed the knife back to the former position and he walked toward his [redacted] [redacted], who was seated in a chair in the northwest corner of the room. The suspect said to [redacted], "I'm going to cut you up, 'old man'." At this point, the suspect was distracted by one of the officers who was standing in the hallway (east of Mr. [redacted]). This officer had dropped his gun. The suspect took this opportunity to run past the officers and out the front door of the location. The officers immediately followed.

A taped and transcribed statement of Mr. [redacted], along with photographs of Mr. [redacted] depicting [redacted] positions as he held the knife, will be made a permanent part of this file.

The suspect is on a prescribed medication of Lithium Carbonate 300mg. Numerous other types of prescribed medicines with varying dates of expiration, were found in the suspect's bedroom.

Mr. [redacted] said there is a conservatorship hearing set for his [redacted] on 3-6-92, wherein the court must appoint a new conservator for the suspect, as [redacted] are incapable of providing adequate care for him due to their age and frail health.

The incident report, written in January, 1992, is under Sheriff's file Number 192-01822-0462-461. A copy of this report will be made a permanent part of this file.

1815 HOURS

Investigator Bice conducted an interview with Deputy M. Barron in the Captain's office at Norwalk Sheriff's Station. Deputy M. Barron was assigned to escort the suspect to the hospital. She submitted a written report detailing the transportation of the suspect from one hospital to another; however she did not detail her observations of the suspect during transportation and while he was being treated. A transcription of her taped interview will be made a permanent part of this file.

Investigation to continue with further reports to follow.
